

Concerto for two clowns – Les Rois Vagabonds (The king vagabonds)

The musical program consists of Vivaldi, Strauss, Bach...
But the musicians are...clowns.

Tradition and innovation?

They are above all "poets in action", according to Henri Miller.

We feel we want to accompany them a while on our shared path of humanity.

Actually clowns are not actors. Mayhap the wearing of a red nose, a white mask or extravagant clothes allows them to reveal more of themselves to us.

They speak the universal language of mime, acrobatics and music.

Be we an old philosopher or young child we are surprised, we are amazed, we laugh, we smile... we are moved.

Every evening we build a new love story with the audience...an invitation to recognize in the other the reflection of ourselves." Les Rois Vagabonds

From and by Igor Sellem and Julia Moa Caprez

Technic: Sacha Pinget, Florian Euvrard

From 8 years on